Become a Friend of the Festival

The Ubud Writers & Readers Festival is offering you the opportunity to be a part of one of South-East Asia's most dynamic literary gatherings that is contributing to intercultural dialogue between the great minds of Asia and the rest of the world. Since 2004, the Ubud Writers & Readers Festival has been bringing together world-renowned writers, journalists, literary agents, artists and publishers from across the region in a dynamic meeting of minds. As well as promoting Bali as an important cultural and artistic centre, the Festival also aims to foster a love of literature amongst young Indonesians. Tri Hita Karana is the theme of the Fifth International Ubud Writers & Readers Festival and translates as our relationship between God, Humanity and Nature. Invited international guest include acclaimed Indian author, Vikram Seth, Mexican writer Alberto Ruy-Sanchez, and 2007 Man Booker prize short-listed writer, Indra Sinha.

Satisfy your passions by lavishing in the lush surroundings of some of Ubud's most elegant hotels and gracious homes with literary lunches, dinners and other culinary surprises. Enjoy workshops that teach the craft of writing, in between book launches, performances, exhibitions, cocktail parties and celebrations into the early hours of the morning. And if that is not enough, the 2008 Festival will take to the streets, literally, with international street performers matching their wits against Ubud's youth in a carnival of skill and artistry. We are very excited to be exploring this theme and hope you will join us for the culmination of this journey at the fifth Ubud Writers & Readers Festival from 14-19 October 2008.
